The Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

For all our Dearly Beloved Departed

The names of those who have recently passed from this life to the next will remain on the bulletin necrology for nine weeks. They will then be transferred to the permanent parish necrology, also known as the Book of the Dead. Mass Intentions for loved ones after this time will be printed the week that the Holy Mass is scheduled.

Lord Jesus, remember especially in loving mercy:

All deceased fathers of SVdP Parish, Pat Sosbee, Richard Jarbeau, Elida T. Garcia, Bea Chisholm, Erin McCann, Annette Abbott, Julianne Grego, David Reardon, Anthony Massaro and all those who have gone before us.

CATECHISM OF PIUS X - The Fifth Commandment

4 Q. Does God also forbid us in the Fifth Commandment to do harm to the spiritual life of another?

A. Yes, in the Fifth Commandment God also forbids us to do harm to another's spiritual life by scandal.

5 Q. What is scandal?

A. Scandal is any word, act, or omission which is the occasion of another's committing sin.

6 Q. Is scandal a grave sin?

A. Scandal is a grave sin because, by causing the loss of souls, it tends to destroy the greatest work of God, namely, the redemption; it effects the death of another's soul by depriving it of the life of grace, which is more precious than the life of the body; and is the source of a multitude of sins. Hence God threatens the severest chastisement to those who give scandal.

7 Q. Why does God, in the Fifth Commandment, forbid the taking of one's own life or suicide?

A. In the Fifth Commandment God forbids suicide, because man is not the master of his own life no more than of the life of another. Hence the Church punishes suicide by deprivation of Christian burial.

Hearing The Cry Of A Child

We were all moved by the plight of the little 18-month-old 'Lily' who was strapped in her car seat in a car that was upside down in a river in Utah years ago for 14 hours. Her mother was killed in this terrible accident. A fisherman discovered the wreck and firemen were notified. The five heroic firemen claim they each heard a voice in their heads pleading for 'help.' Within minutes after turning the car over they rescued the baby and she was on her way to the hospital and recovery. We were all thrilled!

Whose voice was calling to them? Who is Lily's guardian angel? It certainly was a spiritual being - a little miracle that most certainly touched the hearts of those firemen!

If only expectant mothers could hear the cry of the babies in their wombs pleading with them to let them be born! They have so much love to share! They are just as anxious to meet their moms and dads as the parents should be to meet them. They would tell you they are a real person waiting to give hugs to loved ones. They want to run and laugh and play and smell the flowers.

And to the abortion doctors they would plead with them to honor their Hippocratic Oath as doctors to save lives - not to kill anyone. That is not their right; it never was nor ever will be. Just think what a wonderful world this would be if all the aborted babies had been saved.

Gospel Reading

Mark 6:7-13

Jesus instructs his disciples and sends them to preach repentance.

This week's Gospel and the one for next week describe how Jesus sent the disciples to minister in his name and the disciples' return to Jesus afterward. These two passages, however, are not presented together in Mark's Gospel. Inserted between the two is the report of Herod's fears that Jesus is John the Baptist back from the dead. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is presented in connection with the teaching of John the Baptist. Jesus' public ministry begins after John is arrested. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus, who preached the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God.

While we do not read these details about John the Baptist in our Gospel this week or next week, our Lectionary sequence stays consistent with Mark's theme. Recall that last week we heard how Jesus was rejected in his hometown of Nazareth. The insertion of the reminder about John the Baptist's ministry and his death at the hands of Herod in Mark's Gospel makes a similar point. Mark reminds his readers about this dangerous context for Jesus' ministry and that of his disciples. Preaching repentance and the Kingdom of God is dangerous business for Jesus and for his disciples. Mark wants his readers to remember that we, too, may find resistance as we choose to be disciples of Jesus.

Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus sent out the Twelve. These twelve were selected from among Jesus' disciples and named by Mark in chapter 3. Mark notes that these twelve are also called "apostles." The word apostle means "one who is sent." The number twelve is also a symbolic number, representing the twelve tribes of Israel. By naming twelve apostles, Jesus shows his mission to be in continuity with the mission of God's people, Israel.

Jesus' instructions to the apostles are very specific. He repeats the mission that they are sent to preach and to share his authority to heal and to drive out demons. Jesus sends them in pairs, establishing his mission as a communal endeavor. Jesus also instructs them to travel lightly, without the customary food, money, and extra set of clothes. These instructions mean that the Twelve will be dependent on the hospitality of others, just as Jesus depended on others to provide for his needs.

Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith that is the Church. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

From St. Faustina's Diary In the Depths of Your Heart

Meditation:

I will tell you most when you converse with Me in the depths of your heart. Here, no one can disturb My actions. Here, I rest as in a garden enclosed (Diary, 581)

When you reflect upon what I tell you in the depths of your heart, you profit more than if you had read many books. Oh, if souls would only want to listen to My voice when I am speaking in the depths of their hearts, they would reach the peak of holiness in a short time. (Diary, 584)

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, teach me. Help me to listen to You as You speak to me in the depths of my heart. Like St. Faustina, help me to become holy as You form my heart to become like Yours.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

SVdP Prayer Line

Due to technical difficulties and for personal reasons, we are in the process of transferring the Prayer Line contacts to a new ministry coordinator. We hope to have the emails flowing again very soon. In the meantime, please continue to pray for all in need, most especially those who have intentions that we are unable to forward at this time.

Youth Activity Nights

We are pleased to announce that in June, SVdP began hosting Youth Activity Nights on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. These nights are open to all youth in Grades 7-12. Youth are encouraged to attend the Wednesday evening Holy Mass at 6:15 p.m. and stay until 8:30 p.m. for food, fellowship, and prayer. (In the absence of Holy Mass, Activity Nights will run from 7:00 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.) Registration is required! Parents will need to submit four different forms in order to participate. All forms are available on our parish website.

- 1) Registration for Youth Activity
- 2) Annual Medical Release Form
- 3) Permission to Contact Youth Form
- 4) COVID Waiver

The doors to the Religious Education Building will not be opened until Holy Mass is over. If not attending Holy Mass, youth may wait in their cars with their parents until the rear glass doors are opened. This is to prevent unnecessary disruptions in the narthex while Holy Mass is being celebrated.

*For the summer months, our remaining Youth Activity Nights will be held on the following dates:
July 14, July 28, August 11 and August 25.*

Activity nights are free of charge; however, we do ask for a $1 donation to help defray the cost of food. We are in need of several adult volunteers; let us know if you are willing to join in the fun.

Please contact Mary Ware (Co-Director of Religious Education) at the church for more information.

The Sacrament of Baptism

To schedule a Baptism, parents and Godparents are first required to attend a Baptism Preparation class. Please email ahew@svdpatl.com to register for the class.

Baptisms will not be officially scheduled until parents and Godparents have attended the class and all paperwork has been turned in.

The paperwork includes a St. Vincent de Paul Parish registration packet (if the family is not already registered), the Baptism registration form and sponsor certificates for the Godmother and Godfather.

Baptisms are not scheduled to take place during the seasons of Advent or Lent.
